

RoHS 2011/65/EU Certificate of Compliance

RoHS - EU Legislation aims to reduce risks to human health and the environment through the replacement of certain substances in electrical and electronic equipment through less hazardous alternatives or technologies. (Regulation no.2011/65/EU)

Dear customer,

thank you for your enquiry concerning RoHS and it's consequence to your business with Digital Mechanics, we are pleased to inform you as follows:

- We are not a manufacturer nor an importer of substances being regulated by RoHS.
- Substances covered by the RoHS directive is:
 - Mercury (Hg)
 - Cadmium (Cd)
 - Lead (Pb)
 - Hexavalent chromium (Cr VI)
 - The flame retardants PBB and PBDE
 - Phthalates DEHP, BBP, DBP and DIBP (added through replacement of Annex II to 2011/65/EU according to 2015/863)

For more information about the RoHS regulation, please visit the website of Kemikalieinspektionen: www.kemi.se and search for RoHS.

Digital Mechanics Sweden AB

Fredrik Finnberg, CEO